

APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL TO USE
HUMANS AS SUBJECTS IN EMPIRICAL STUDY

Instructions:

Given that research plans often include a series of similar experiments, there is no need to request separate approval from the ethics committee for each experiment, but rather for the entire research project.

The following forms and documents should be submitted to the ethics committee by the primary researcher:

1. This application, filled out in its entirety
2. The research protocol: A full description of the project stages. If the project contains a series of experiments, describe the variations, also include description of type and number of subjects and subjects recruitment method. . If this type of protocol is one commonly used and/or if a similar protocol and methods have been used and published in the literature, please add references indicating so.
3. Copies of questionnaires and/or description of interview questions.
4. The consent form that the subjects will be asked to sign
5. Instructions and/or explanations that subjects will receive before, during, or after the experiment.

II. Consent to Participate

Are the subjects able to legally consent to participate in the research?

☒ Yes / ☐ No

If yes, proceed to 1 If no, proceed to 2 and complete a, b, c.

1. Will the subjects be asked to sign a consent form?

☒ Yes / ☐ No

If you answered no, please explain here:

2. If a subject cannot legally consent (minors, mentally incapacitated, etc.):

a. Will the subject's legal guardian be asked to sign a consent form?

☒ Yes / ☐ No

If you answered no, please explain here:

b. Will the subject be asked to give oral consent?

☐ Yes / ☒ No

c. Are the instructions appropriate to the subjects' level of understanding?

☒ Yes / ☐ No

Comments:

III. Discomfort:

3. Will the participants be subjected to physical discomfort?

☐ Yes / ☒ No

4. Will the participants be subjected to psychological discomfort?:

☐ Yes / ☒ No

If you answered yes to question 3 or 4 above, add here a detailed explanation of the circumstances

IV. Deception

5. Does the research involve deceiving the subjects?

☐ Yes / ☒ No

APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL TO USE
HUMANS AS SUBJECTS IN EMPIRICAL STUDY

6. Is the decision on the part of the subject to participate in the study based on deception? (For example, if they are informed only after the event of their participation.)

☐ Yes / ☒ No

If you answered yes to question 5 or 6 above, add here a detailed explanation why deception is necessary:

V. Debriefing of Subjects

If the study involves any discomfort or deception, it is necessary to personally debrief the subjects after the experiment in order to explain the reasons for the discomfort and/or deception. If the study does not involve any discomfort or deception, the subject should be provided, upon completion of the experiment, with a brief written description of the study's objectives.

7. Will the subjects be debriefed orally?

☐ Yes / ☒ No

8. Will the subjects be debriefed in writing?

☒ Yes / ☐ No

If you answered no to both 7 and 8 above, explain below:

VI. Compensation for Participation

9. Will the subjects receive compensation for participation?

☒ Yes / ☐ No

If the compensation is monetary, give details: Participants will receive 20 NIS via a BuyMe coupon for 10 minutes of participation.

Other type of compensation detail here:

If you answered no to question 9, explain the basis for participation:

VII. Privacy:

10. Will audio and/or visual recordings be made of the subjects?

☐ Yes / ☒ No

11. If yes, are they informed of this fact in the consent form?

☐ Yes / ☐ No

12. Will the data collected contain identifying details about the subjects?

☒ Yes / ☐ No

HUMANS AS SUBJECTS IN EMPIRICAL STUDY

13. If the data contains identifying details, what steps will you take to ensure the confidentiality of the information? How will the data be stored? What will be done with identifying information or recordings of the subjects at the end of the research?

The data and the forms will be kept locked in the designated locked area in the laboratory.

The identifying information will be observed only by the researchers involved in the research.

No identifying information will be used for any publication.

VIII. Withdrawal from the Study:

14. Will subjects be informed that they may withdraw from the study at any time?

☒ Yes / ☐ No

15. Will the subjects incur any loss, monetary or other, if they withdraw from the study before its completion?

☐ Yes / ☒ No

If you answered yes to question 15, specify the loss that will be incurred and why:

IX. Research equipment

16. Does the research entail the use of equipment other than standard equipment, such as computers, video recording equipment?

☐ Yes/ ☒ No

17. If yes, does the equipment being used meet safety standard for use with human subjects? Please specify which standards.

☐ Yes/ ☐ No
